Men's Soccer

6 Wins 7 Losses 1 Tie

It was a tough season for the Men's Soccer team as they were handed the majority of their defeats by but one goal, while most of their victories were by a margin of at least two.

The defensive line, in this, a rebuilding year, did a remarkable job. Sophomores Tim McGrath and Matt Smith, along with junior Bill Bounds and senior Roger Vaughn, defended the Washington College goal superbly. Junior Glenn Gillis did an excellent job in the net, making 85 saves and adding 4 shutouts to his collegiate record. The experience gained by the defensive players who will be returning next season should give them an advantage over future adversaries.

Senior V.J. Fillibin and sophmore Ron Lauricella stood out offensively: Fillibin tallied 4 goals and 3 assists, and Lauricella had 5 goals and 6 assists.

Graduating only two senior starters, the 'booters' will field a stronger, more experienced squad next year.

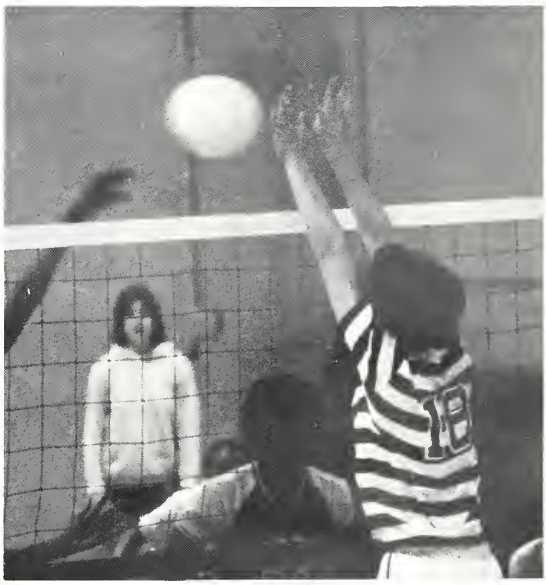
Seniors Kevin Kroncke and Jeff Lucas performed consistently, following the pace set by freshman upstart Jon Adams. Although Lucas and Kroencke will graduate in the Spring, Coach Chatallier feels that the remaining runners will provide a strong base from which to build a new team.

Women's Volleyball

11 Wins 21 Losses



Despite a determined effort, the Washington College Women's Volleyball team finished the season with a disappointing 11-21 record. The team was often defeated in close matches. "We could play beautifully in one match and not so well in the next," explained Coach Penny Fall. "We couldn't get a handle on our inconsistencies."

Washington College competed with some of the top ranked teams on the East Coast. Fall commented, "We stayed right with them." Although they were outscored by their opponents, Fall found the overall level of play achieved by the team in the course of the season, to be very rewarding.

Seniors Cheryl Loss, Ann Most, and Christina Ragonesi led the squad withoutstanding individual performances. For the second consecutive year, Loss and Most were named to the All-Star team at the Maryland State Tournament. As well, Loss was named to the Mid Atlantic Conference All-Star team. Most received Honorable Mention.

Coach Fall was impressed with the improved style of play exhibited by Loss. "She's worked hard to become a better player," said Fall. "I respect her 150% effort 100% of the time at practice and in games." Ragonesi was another tremendous asset to the team. "She's made enormous strides in the last two years," said Fall. "Her enthusiasm and dry sense of humor added something to the team which will be greatly missed." Most was faced this year with difficult task of alternating court positions, and met the challenge squarely. "I think we did pretty well," she said. "We had our ups and downs, like everybody. I just wish we had more ups."

Basketball

Capturing the Wild Goose Classic for the forth straight year, the basketball team finished second in their conference with an overall record of 13-11.

Senior Joe Moye had an excellent year: he scored his one thousandth collegiate point before mid-season, and was later named Most Valuable Player at the Wild Goose Classic. Also, he was named to both the first team, M.A.C. All Stars, and the first team All State. Sophomore Tom Keefe was named to the second team All State, and received Honorable Mention from M.A.C.

Pleased with the season's outcome, Coach Tom Finnegan explained that he has two goals every year: to have a winning season and to make the playoffs; this year's squad nearly accomplished both.

Led by Senior Captains V.J. Filliben and Bill Gerwig, the Shoreman Baseball Team wrapped up a very successful season capturing second place in their division with a 6-4 record in league play.

At the head of the pitching staff strode the crafty veteran Tim Fagan who compiled the lowest ERA on the squad and tallied four victories. For both his pitching abilities and offensive prowess, Fagan will be missed next year. The gap will be filled by the man who had the second lowest ERA and won the Most Improved Player award, Sophomore Tommy Davis.

The team's Most Valuable Player award was shared by sophomores Vince Glasior (third base) and Matt Burke (shortstop). Glasior and Burke were also tied with Fran Lucia (second base) for most hits.

1-Anne Most, Cathy Hofman 2-Kathy McNamara, Jenny Bradley, Christina Ragonesi, Lisa Laird, Anne Plumer 3-Coach Penny Fall, Sarah Wright, Kelly Cupka, Chrissy Denayer, Lorraine Sexton, Jeff Alderson (manager), Coach Fred Weiman

Weathering the soggy spring which caused the cancellation of several games, as well as the loss of valuable practice time out of doors, the softball team faced their opposition squarely. Losing several matches by narrow margins, they wound up the season with a disappointing win-loss record.

This season brought freshman Kelly Cupka and transfer sophomore Jenny Bradley to the mound. Both did remarkably good jobs for their first season.

The team batting leaders were Christina Ragonesi with a .437 average, followed by Cathy Hofman and Sara Wright with .400 and .315 respectively. Captain Ann Most led the team in RBI's with 10, followed by Hofman who had 9. For the second year in a row, Most was named Southern Conference All Star Catcher. Hofman was awarded Most Valuable Player, and Chrissy Denayer was voted Most Improved Player.

Women's Lacrosse

SUCCESS! That is the best way to describe the Women's Lacrosse Team's first season of varsity play. Despite the small size of their team, the Shorewomen managed to outscore their opponents by nearly 200%. The team's leading scorers were Jesse Wittich with 40 of the team's 95 goals, Amy Farmer with 21 goals, and Nina Casey with 15 goals.

Eileen Grogan, who was the only goalie for most of the season was voted Most Improved Player. Co-captains Jessica Fowler and Polly White shared the Most Valuable Player award.

Men's Lacrosse

13 Wins 4 Losses

For everyone involved, the 1982 WC Men's Lacrosse Team was one that will be remembered in the years to come. They had a very successful season, capturing second place in the NCAA Division Three. One factor which contributed heavily to the team's success was the strong leadership of tri-captains Paul Hooper, Peter Jenkins, and Kevin O'Connor along with the skill and maturity of the other senior members of the squad. As well, it was a diversified team with many outstanding players whose talents meshed together to form a well rounded squad. Hooper led the team in scoring with 67 points (30 goals, 37 assists), and juniors Jeff Kauffman and Dicky Grieves followed closely with 63 (49 goals, 14 assists) and 56 (36 goals, 20 assists) respectively. The team, according to Head Coach Bryan Matthews, was one which "took things seriously; a team willing to listen and learn." Under the guidance of Matthews and his coaching staff this team did indeed seem to listen and learn, and realize their potential.

If your alma mater hopes you learned one thing, perhaps it would be that the truth can make you free and that the truth can keep you free.

All of you now are about to embark on your own personal search for the truth; not only the truth in facts but also the truth in love and feelings and harmony. Truth is a very small force but it can move a very great weight....

You are almost alumni now and in a moment or two you will each be an integral part of a ceremony that has taken place here or near here for almost two hundred years, through five generations, eight wars, six financial panics, four recessions, and one Great Depression.

To know that you are now participating in virtually the same exercise that has been repeated each year since the eighteenth century, to know that each of you is a beneficiary—however remote—of George Washington's gift of fifty guineas, to know that you are all linked together with almost six thousand other living graduates to carry this proud tradition; surely that burden of history will bring you back to Chestertown again and again to make sure Washington College not only survives but also flourishes.

Good Luck. Happy Birthday. And God Bless you, each one of you.
